Pensacola, FL - Landrum Human Resource Co., has a knack for showing up on highly desirable lists.

Last summer it made a prestigious list of "Best Small & Medium Companies to Work for in America." And they've just made another one, albeit this time a little closer to home.

The Pensacola-based staffing and human resources company ranked number 59 on the 2010 Florida Trend Top 200 Private Companies list, moving up 11 places from 2009.

This is Landrum's 10th consecutive year to be recognized by Florida Trend. It is the only Pensacola-based company to earn a spot on the 2010 list.

"Amid the strain of a tough economy our region faced in 2009, we are pleased to see that we have moved up 11 places to 59 on this list," Ted Kirchharr, vice president and chief operating officer, said. "It is a sound testament to the hard work and dedication of our employees."
